The Master League of Independent Horlogerie
- Shanghai 2019

The Master League of Independent Horlogerie, a platform built by La Bibliotheque Du Temps with the objective in continuing and developing the craftsmanship of independent horlogerie in the region of Asia. We plan to gather the world top ranking independent watchmakers to be under one roof and to be promoted well . The organiser, side by side with the watchmakers, we put our efforts together in developing the most valuable craftsmanship of mankind - the Blue Blood of hand made mechanical timepieces.

The first round of Independent Horlogerie Master League will be organised in two major cities of Asia, Shanghai in 2019 and Beijing in 2020.

At the events, all invited VIPs will be able to witness the beauty of the rare and unique masterpieces with their own eyes. To learn the masters' philosophies from a zero distance and to experience the world top mechanical inspiration with their own hands.

From here, we will be able to continue the blue blood craftsmanship from generation to generation.

Why Beijing & Shanghai?

Beijing, the capital city of China for centuries. It is the hub of politic, culture and art for the nation. A city where people has the knowledge and attitude in highly appreciate the prestige of independent horlogerie. No matter from the angle of collection or investment, the historical Beijing is always the right place for all luxurious and heritages..

Shanghai is a metropolitan city for global trade and finance. It has become the focus of the world since early 20th century by making itself as the most developed western influenced city in China. The community has the sense of investment. They have the taste for luxurious and heritages as well. The facts can be proven by the huge numbers of international brands' flagship stores in town.
